DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because they have copy machine marks and are dark, making it difficult to discern the parts of the invention. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 4,306,705 to Svensson et al. Svensson discloses a connection device that maintains sterility via packaging, barrier covers 10, or filters (see column 2, lines 35-44, column 4, lines 65-67, column 5, lines 57-62, column 12, lines 27-39). The device comprises a coupler 6 with housing 8 and inlet connector 6a, outlet connector 1b, passage or port 6c, o-rings 9, and stem or valve 7 movable within the port. The valve 7 is moved between various open and closed positions to allow flow through passage 6c. Svensson does not specifically disclose sealing barrier plugs, however, the inlet and outlet of the coupler may be covered by valve 3, valve 44, or filters (not labeled) to create a sterile barrier within the flow passage. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to place sterile barriers such as filters in the flow passage of the Svensson connector in order to maintain the sterility of the flow passage, also taught by Svensson. With regard to applicant's claim drawn to the size of the openings suitable for containing a barrier plug, such variations in size are considered to be within the skill of a worker in the art. See MPEP 2144.04. With regard to applicant's claim drawn to the motion of the port, such a limitation is a recitation of the intended use of the device. It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. See MPEP 2114.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

- a. US 2,823,887 Osinski
 - i. Pipe coupling with slide valve
- b. US 4,089,506 Blake
 - ii. Gate valve
- c. US 4,456,026 Kantor
 - iii. Manual slide valve
- d. US 4,534,758 Raines
 - iv. Coupling and valve
